

Grantee:	Agency for Workforce Innovation
Location of Grant Activities:	Tallahassee, Florida
Industries of Focus:	Health Care
Highlighted Participants Served:	Migrant Farm Worker communities across the State.
Amount:	$547,500
Key Partnerships:	Southwest Florida Workforce Development Board (SWFWDB)-Region 24, public and nonprofit organizations, health care providers. Representatives of community-based organizations, health care providers, educational institutions (community colleges and universities) and others, such as philanthropic organizations.
Project Description:	This project is designed to enable the Agency for Workforce Innovation to collaborate with the Southwest Florida Workforce Development Board (SWFWDB)-Region 24 to pilot customized training for promotoras leading to job opportunities in the region.
Proposed Outcomes:	At the end of the period of performance, the Grantee will submit the following deliverables to be shared with other States and workforce boards: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. A copy of the training materials used2. A final report documenting the pilot-tested results and experiences3. Job-related competencies4. Distance Learning Tools5. Case studies, career ladders/lattices6. Career awareness and outreach materials
Contact:	Barbra K. Griffin, barbara.griffin@flaawi.com 850-245-7137

