The screenshot shows a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window displaying the 'Community of Practice : Index' page for 'GREEN JOBS'. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://greenjobs.workforce3one.org/>. The website header features the 'WorkforceOne' logo and navigation links for 'Communities', 'Login', and 'Sign Up'. The main banner includes the text 'GREEN JOBS BUILDING PATHWAYS FOR A GREEN WORKFORCE' and a collage of images related to green energy and workers. Below the banner is a navigation menu with links for 'HOME', 'ABOUT', 'BLOG', 'RESOURCES', 'DISCUSS', and 'CALENDAR', along with a search bar and a 'Subscribe' button. The main content area is divided into three columns: a large graphic of a green eye with a recycling symbol, an 'Announcements' section with four news items, and a 'Join this community' and 'Share your content!' section. The 'Announcements' section includes: 'ANNOUNCED: Department of Energy Funding Opportunity' (5 days ago, 42 views), 'ANNOUNCED: U.S. Department of Energy's Retrofit Ramp-Up Awards' (5 days ago, 50 views), 'EPA announces over $2 million in job training grants for environmental cleanups in communities across the country' (a month ago, 217 views), and 'ANNOUNCED: Smart Grid Investments (DOE)' (a month ago, 167 views). The 'Discussions' section lists: 'Green Jobs: Targeting Women' (7 comments, last comment 4 days ago), 'Green Jobs Community of Practice' (6 comments, last comment 5 days ago), 'State LMI Grantees: Technical' (1 comment, last comment a week ago), and 'Women and Green Job Training'.

Sustainable Roundtable Summary

In partnership with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Office of Brownfields and Land Revitalization (OBLR), International Economic Development Council (IEDC) hosted a Sustainability Roundtable discussion during the 2009 Annual Conference in Reno, Nevada, on October 7, 2009. The event brought together EPA representatives, economic development professionals, and others who are actively engaged in sustainable development initiatives. The roundtable was attended by more than 25 people representing the public, private and non-profit sectors. The summary paper (PDF) builds on the discussion at the roundtable to examine emerging trends, successful strategies, and continuing
