

Jackson Employment Center
Department of Housing and Urban Development
Supportive Housing Programs
Progress Reports for FY 2002-2003

The following is a summary of the five Department of Housing and Urban Development(HUD) Supportive Housing Programs of the Jackson Employment Center. The Supportive Housing Programs are considered transitional housing programs, and by definition cover a period of twenty-four months to complete. The demographics of the population served are contained in each individual Annual Progress Report to HUD, which are included in this report.

CASA

Participants served	110
Job Placement	61
Job Placement rate of 75)	82% (61 out
Average wage at time of placement	$8.93/hr
Retention rate at six month period 61)	71% (43 out of
Education participants	14

LA CASITA

Participants served	31
Job Placement	6
Job Placement rate of 10)	60% (6 out
Average wage at time of placement	$6.78/hr
Retention rate at six month period 6)	100% (6 out of
Education participants	11

NEW CHANCE

Participants served	95
Job Placement	50
Job Placement rate of 69)	73% (50 out

Average wage at time of placement	$8.77/hr
Retention rate at six month period 50)	74% (37 out of
Education	2

CASA FOR FAMILIES

Participants served	34
Job Placement	21
Job Placement rate of 30)	70% (21 out
Average wage at time of placement	$8.70/hr
Retention rate at six month period 21)	77% (16 out of
Education	0

BRIDGES

Participants served	86
Job Placement	51
Job Placement rate out of 70)	73% (51
Average wage at time of placement	$8.71/hr
Retention rate at six month period 51)	71% (36 out of
Education	0

PROGRAM TOTALS

Participants served	356
Job Placement	189
Job Placement rate out of 254)	75% (189
Average wage at time of placement	$8.38/hr
Retention rate at six month period of 189)	74% (138 out
Education	27