

Grantee:	Graham County Community College District DBA Eastern Arizona College
Location of Grant Activities:	Graham , Arizona
Industries of Focus:	Allied Health
Highlighted Participants Served:	Native American Allied Health Care Professionals
Amount:	$250,000.00
Key Partnerships:	Eastern Arizona College, Gila Community College, The San Carlos Apache Tribe, Workforce Investment One-Stop Opportunity Centers., Copper Mountain Inn, Heritage Health Care, and San Carlos High School for the purpose of clinical training sites. Also, the Cobre Valley Institute of Technology, a joint technological district, and San Carlos Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Agency (TANF).
Project Description:	This Project will focus on training Native American allied health professionals from the San Carlos Apache tribe. This allied health training project is designed to improve the availability of a well-trained labor force for the San Carlos Apache Indian Reservation. The Reservation Communities of San Carlos, Peridot, and Bylas have been designated as Health Professional Shortage Areas by the U.S Department of Health and Human Services, for primary care professionals.
Proposed Outcomes:	Total Enrollment in Training -80 Total Number Completing Training – 68 Enter Employment – 58 Employment Retention – 95%
Contact:	Dr. Bernard Stephen Cullen 928-425-8481 scullen@gilacc.org

