Upcoming ETA Funding Opportunities

Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College and Career Training Grants (TAACCCT)

The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Employment and Training Administration (ETA) anticipates that it will award up to $500 million in grants through this funding opportunity. The Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College and Career Training grants program (TAACCCT) funds eligible institutions of higher education to offer, develop or improve training and education programs to serve workers who are eligible for training under the Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) for workers program. Eligible institutions may be located all the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico or the U.S. territories. The TAACCCT program provides community colleges and other eligible institutions of higher education with funds to expand and improve their ability to deliver education and career training programs that can be completed in two years or less, are suited for workers who are eligible for training under the TAA for workers program, and prepare program participants for employment in high-wage, high-skill occupations. As a result of this Solicitation for Grant Applications (SGA), the Department helps ensure that our nation's institutions of higher education are able to help workers eligible for training under the TAA for workers program and other adults succeed in acquiring the skills, degrees, and credentials needed for high-wage, high-skill employment while also meeting the needs of employers for skilled workers. In accordance with requirements of the TAACCCT, the Department intends to award at least 0.5 percent of the total amount of available funds to eligible institutions in each State, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, where the TAA for workers program operates. The complete solicitation can be found at http://www.doleta.gov/grants/find_grants.cfm.

Disability Employment Initiative

Based on the availability of funding, the Employment and Training Administration (ETA), in coordination with Department of Labor's (DOL's) Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP), will make available a third round of cooperative agreements in late winter to state agencies that administer the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) this spring. These funds will provide an opportunity for states to develop and implement a plan for improving effective and meaningful participation of persons with disabilities in the workforce. DOL will use this funding to implement the Disability Employment Initiative (DEI), through which the Department intends to make grant awards designed to: 1) improve educational, training, and employment opportunities and outcomes of youth and adults with disabilities who are unemployed, underemployed, and/or receiving Social Security disability benefits; and 2) help these individuals with disabilities find a path into the middle class through exemplary and model service delivery by the public workforce system.

Women in Apprenticeship and Nontraditional Occupations (WANTO)

The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Women's Bureau and Employment and Training Administration (ETA)'s Office of Apprenticeship, anticipates that it will award up to $1,800,000 in grants through this funding opportunity. The program provides grant funds to eligible community-based organizations that provide preparatory education to help women obtain job readiness skills and industry specific training. Grantees also provide technical assistance to help employers and labor unions recruit, place and retain women in registered apprenticeship programs that lead to non-traditional occupations. Grant funds may be also be used to offset the cost of equipment, tools, child care and transportation services for apprentices. Applicants must demonstrate the establishment of a consortium consisting of a minimum of a registered apprenticeship program (RAP) sponsor, a Workforce Investment Act (WIA) local area, and a Community Based Organization (CBO), which may be faith-based organization (FBO), with demonstrated experience in providing training, placement, and support services to women for non-traditional occupations. Employers/RAP sponsors will be responsible for placing women into their apprenticeship programs. WIA partners will co-enroll participants for the purposes of tracking performance against the common measures and may also provide additional supportive and job search assistance services. This solicitation is expected to be published in the late winter of 2012.
