Dear Ms. Hamilton,

Enclosed please find Washington's Program Year 2011 Workforce Information Grant Annual Report.

The report highlights Washington's Labor Market and Economic Analysis Branch's achievements in meeting performance outcomes stated in the Training and Employment Guidance Letter (TEGL) 4-11. Within the enclosed report, specific accomplishments, timeframes and expenditures are described.

This year's report describes significant customer-driven enhancements of Washington's labor market information website. The new application supports Washington's economy through streamlined and increased access to economic information and analysis for job seekers, businesses, researchers and policy makers.

Sincerely,
