

Adult Education Providers & One Stop Partnerships: It Works!

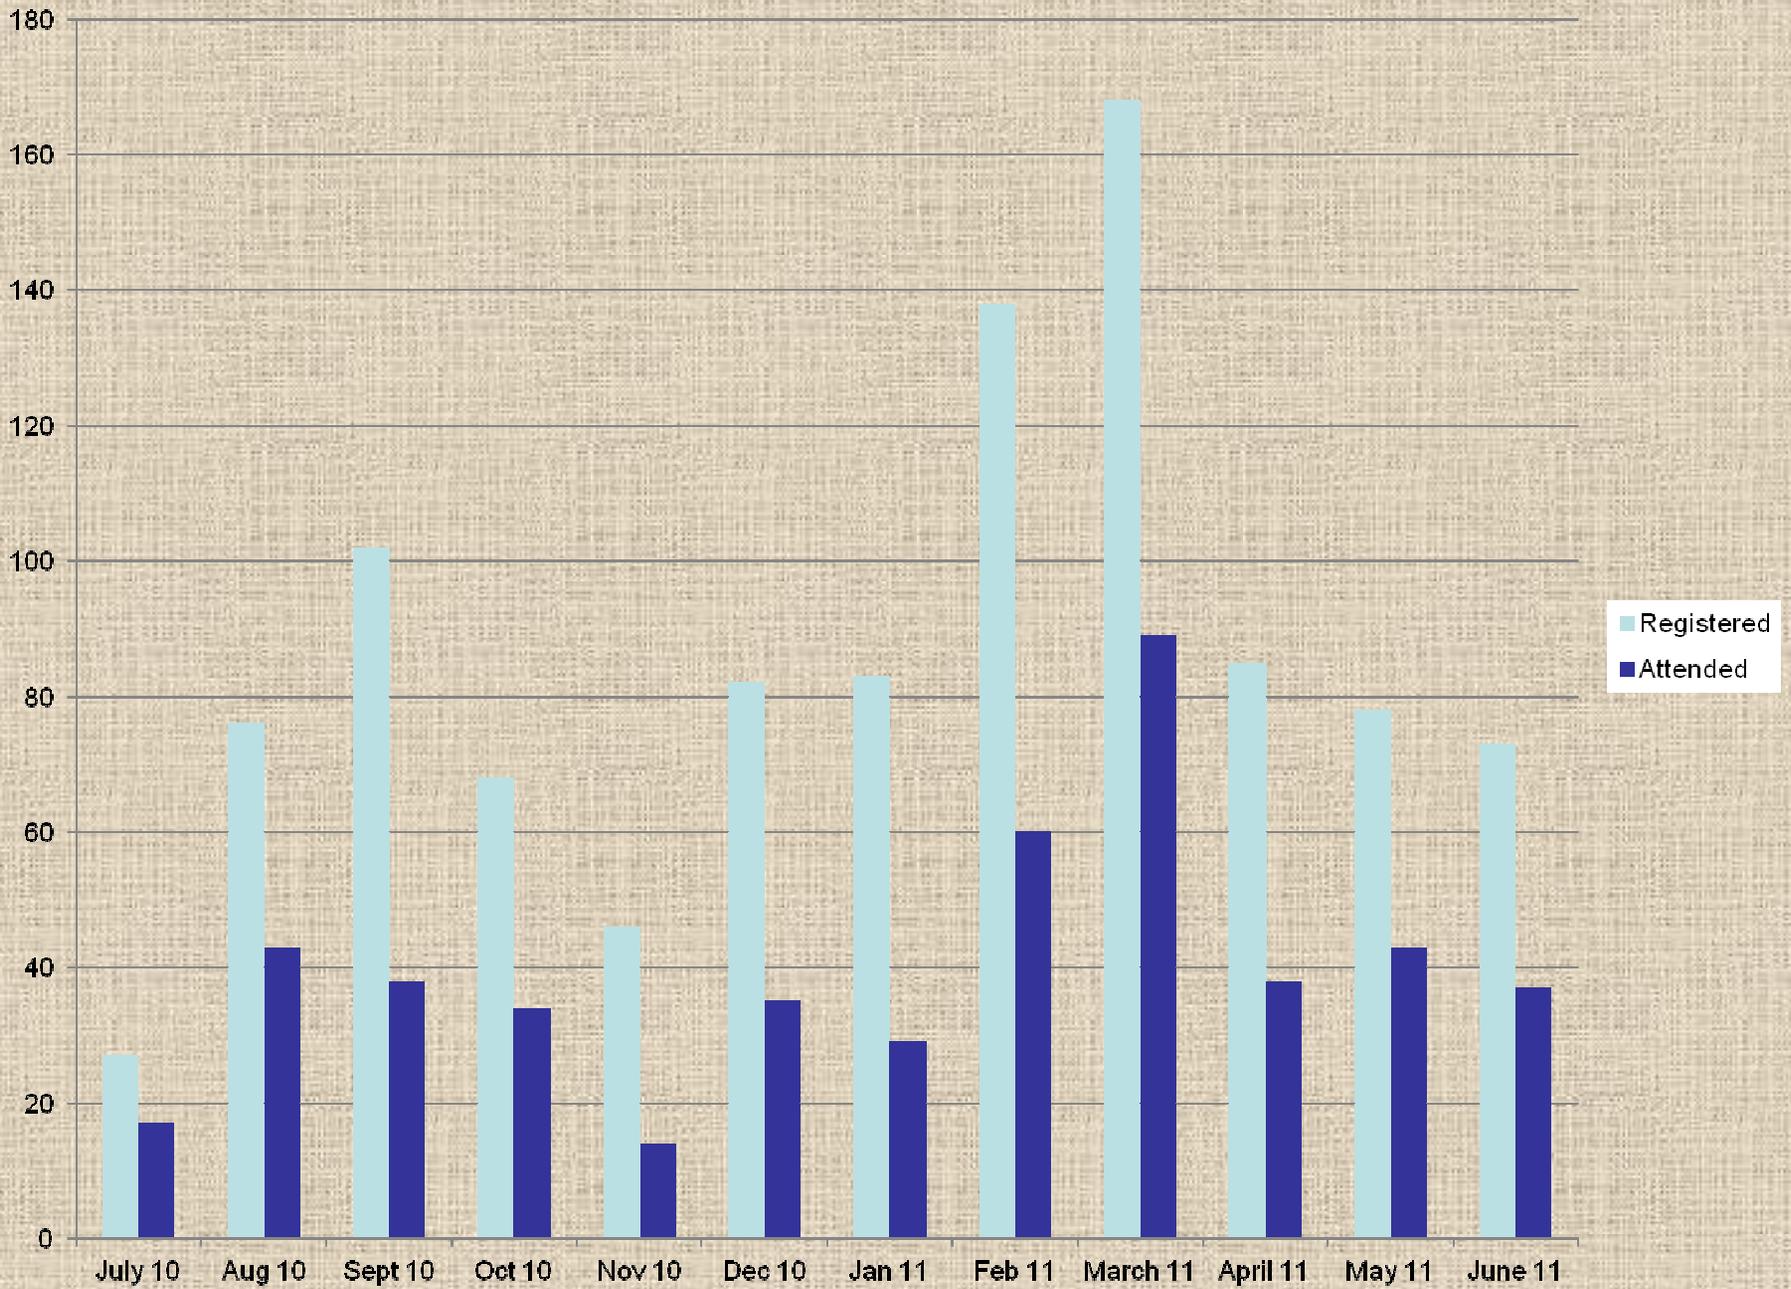

Dr. Rebecca Wagner, Executive Director
Community Learning Center

Dannyelle Austin, Workforce Coordinator/Instructor
Community Learning Center

Ed Sikina, Site Administrator
PA CareerLink

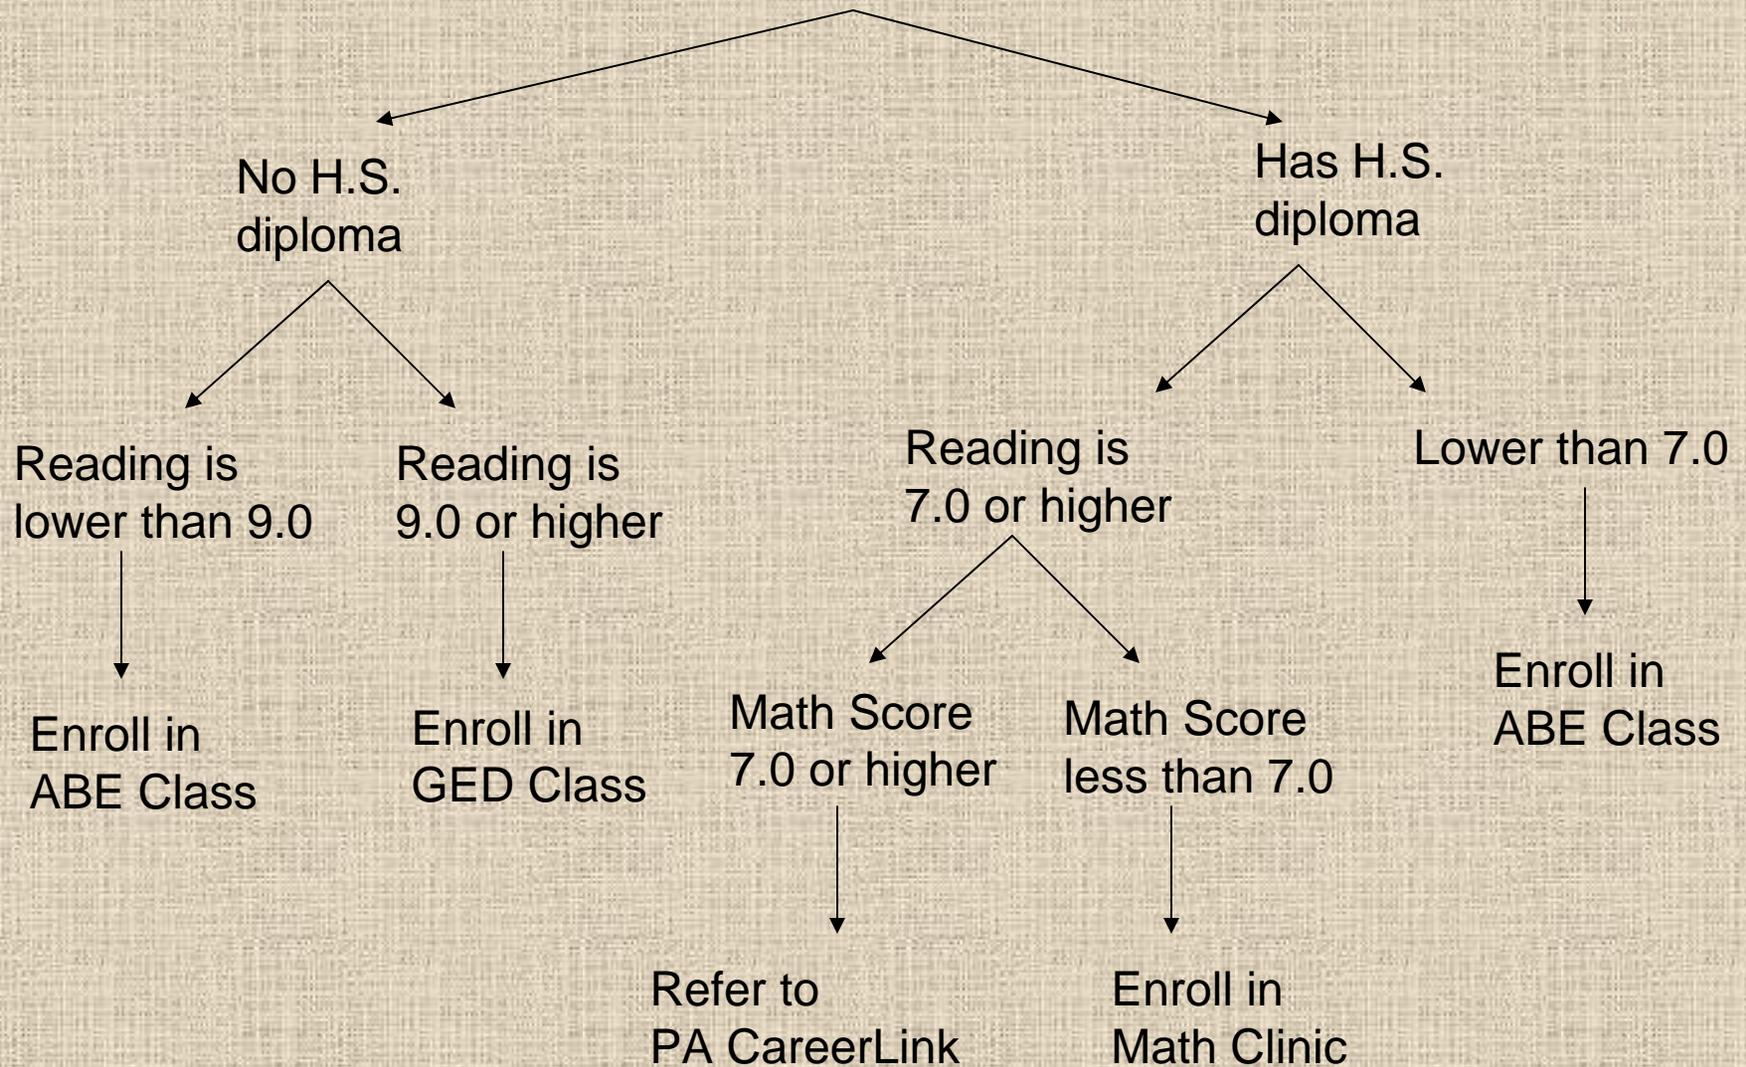

Build and Sustain a Partnership with a One Stop: The Process

- Register for PA CareerLink services (phone or walk-in)
- Attend an orientation session
 - Assigned a staffing specialist
 - Information about services
 - Goal Setting
- Assessment
 - If a client wants training or GED, register for the TABE
 - TABE assessment conducted every Thursday

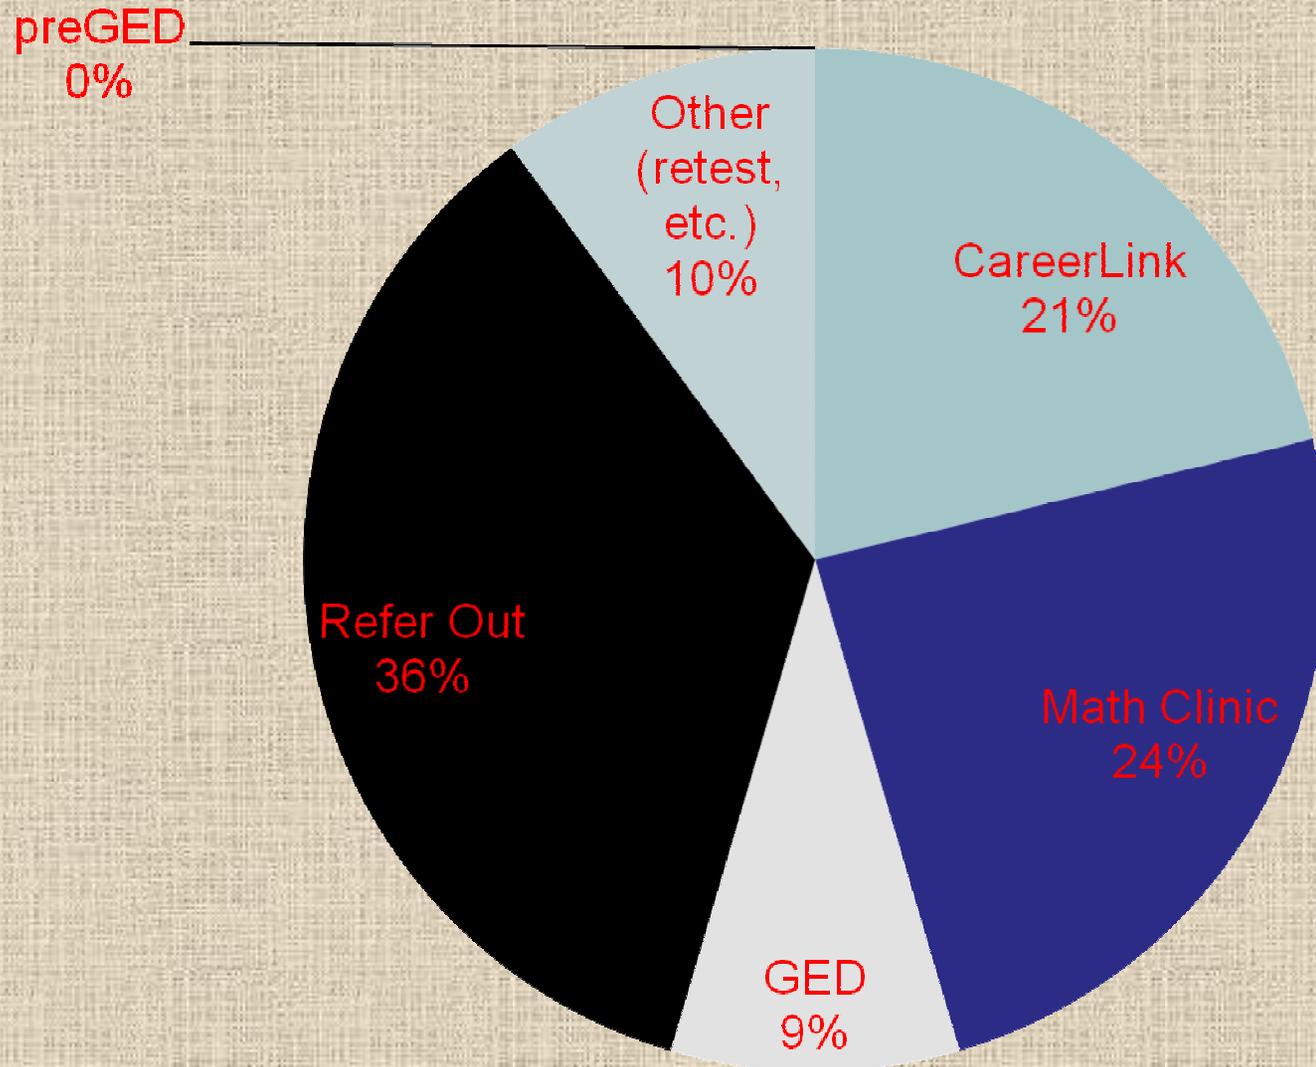

Triage

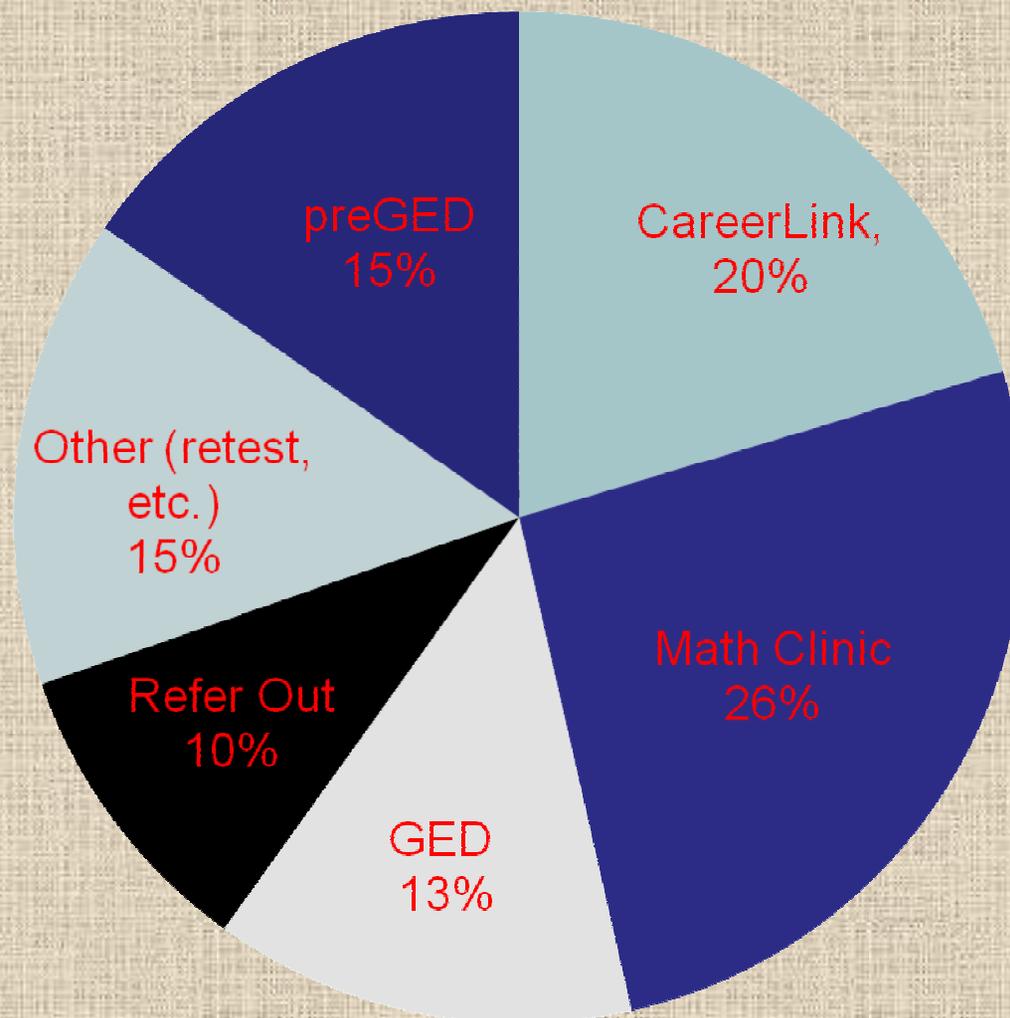

Reading and Math Assessment

Assessment Referrals July 2010-September 2010

Assessment Referrals October 2010-June 2011

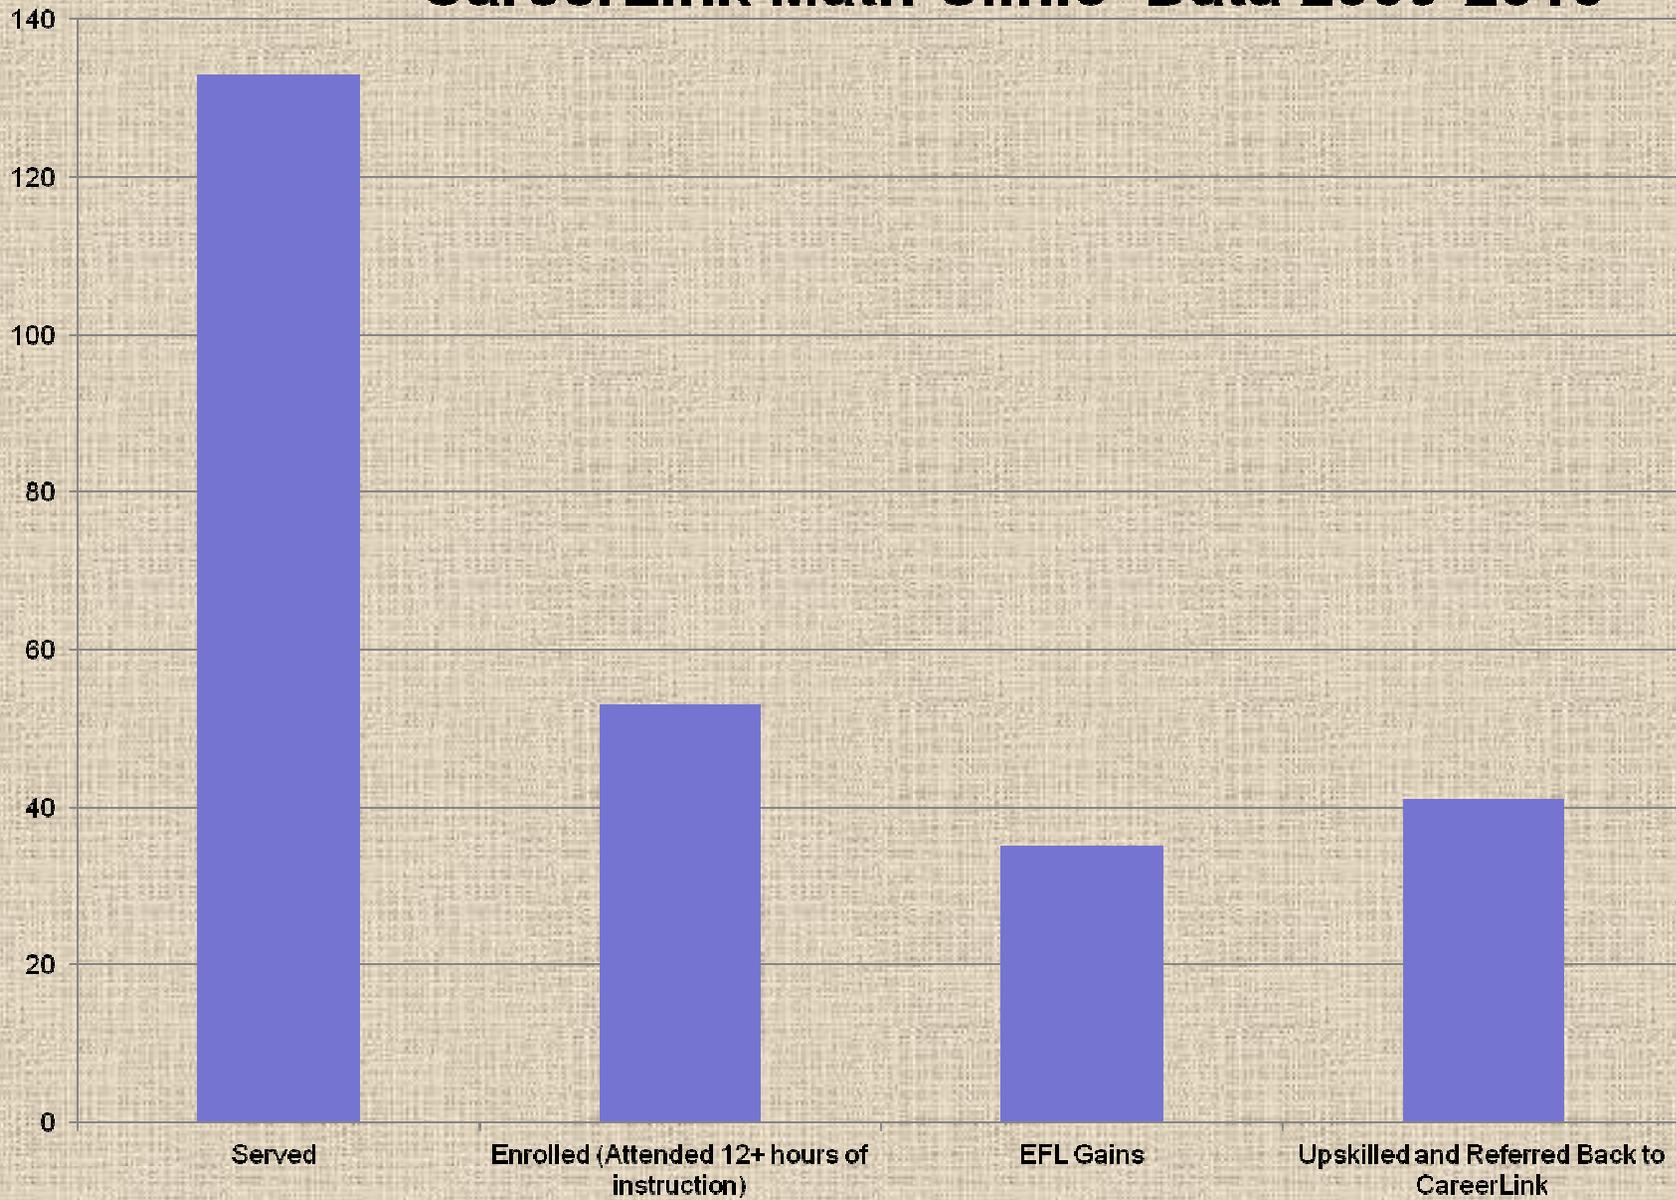

Strategies to Improve Skills

- Academic instruction
 - Goal focused
 - Individualized
 - Contextualized
 - Scope and sequence for skill building
 - Classroom routine
 - Managed enrollment
 - Classroom culture

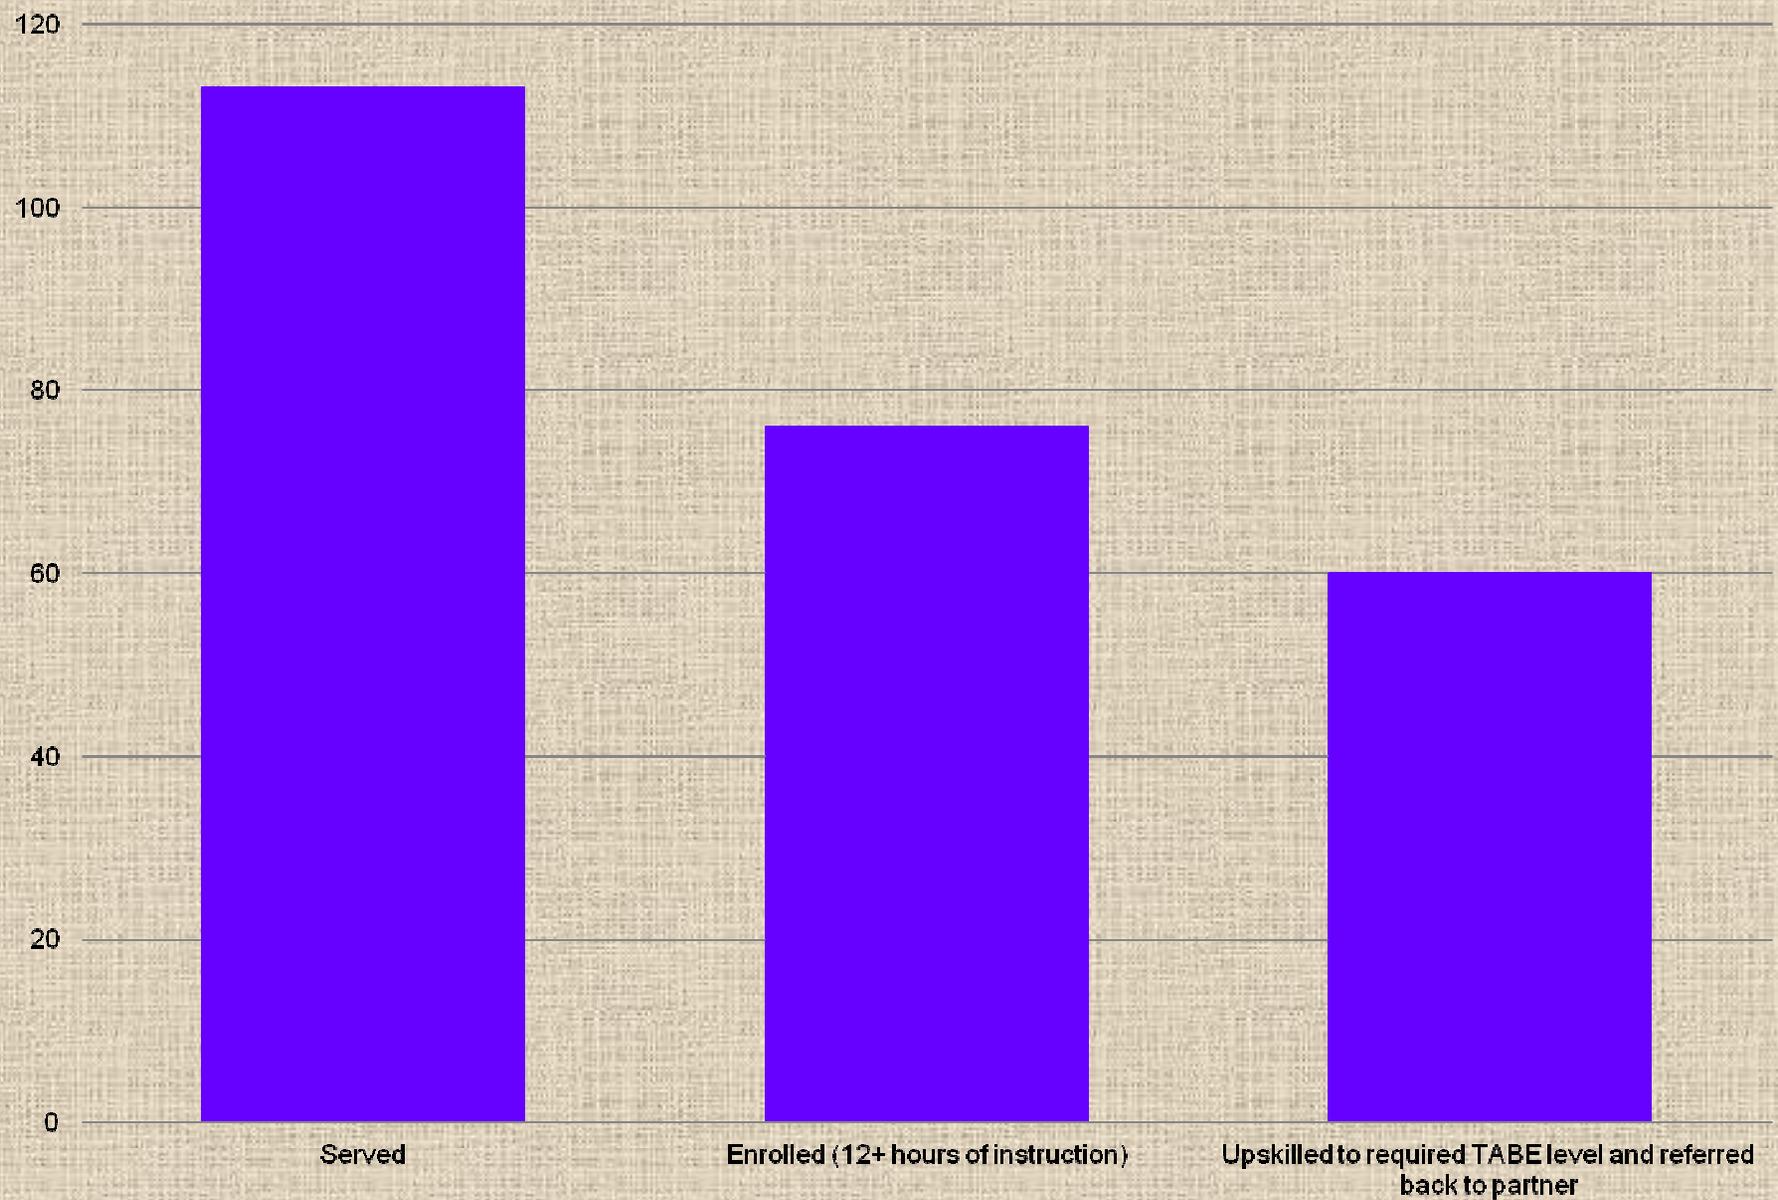

Strategies to Improve Skills (cont.)

- Life-skills and transition
 - Goal setting and weekly progress reports
 - Sequence of 8 lessons
 - Time management and planning
 - Learning styles, test anxiety
 - Interest inventory
 - Support for the transition
 - Referral back to PA CareerLink
 - Post-secondary education

CareerLink Math Clinic Data 2009-2010

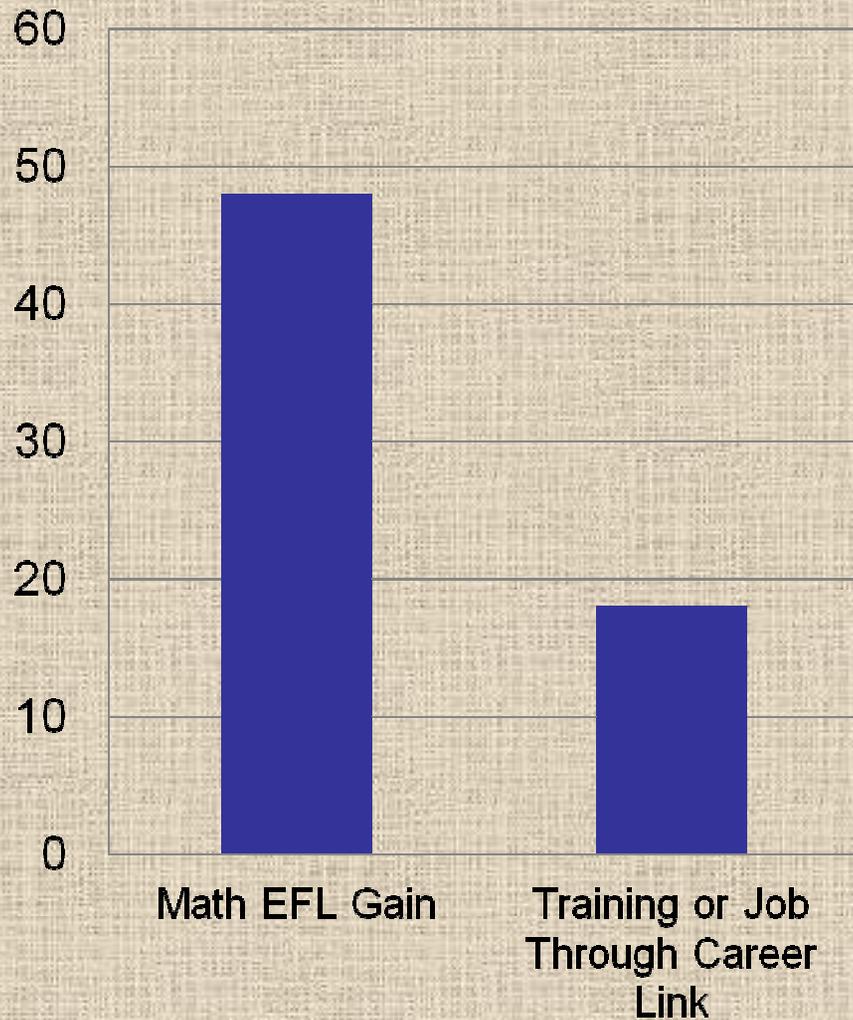

CareerLink Math Clinic Data July 2010 to June 2011

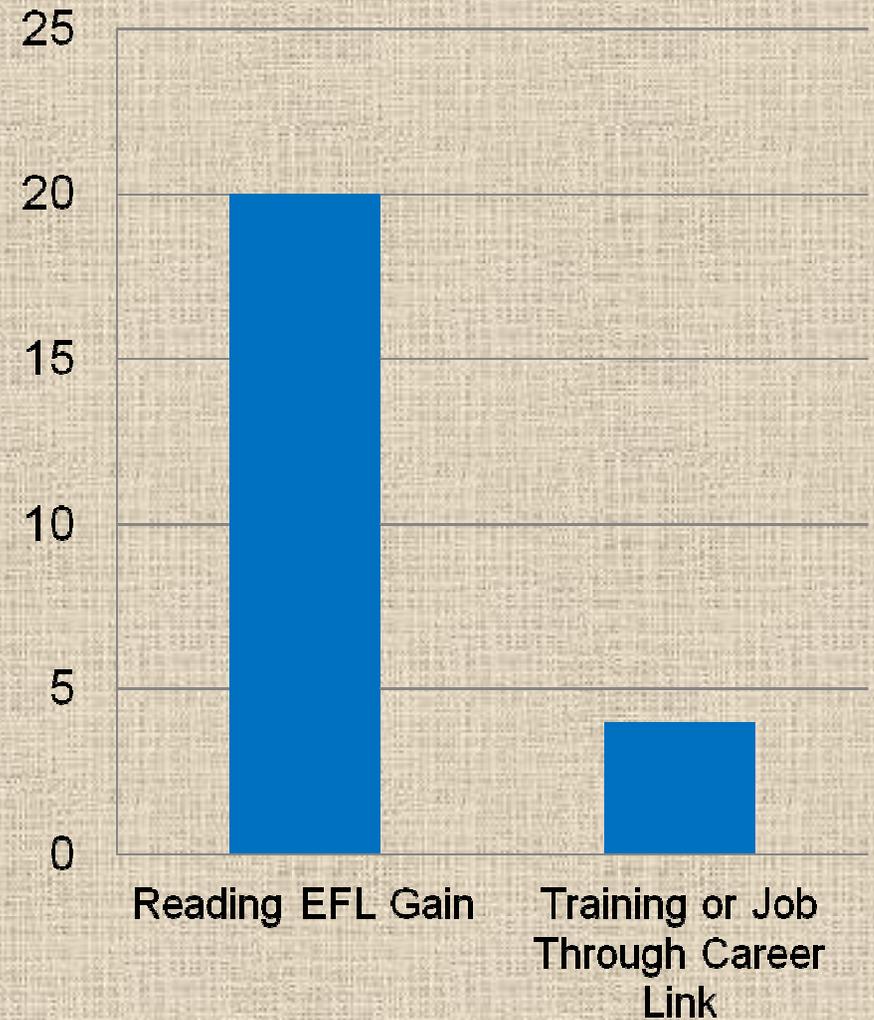

2010-2011 Math Clinic EFL Gains Data

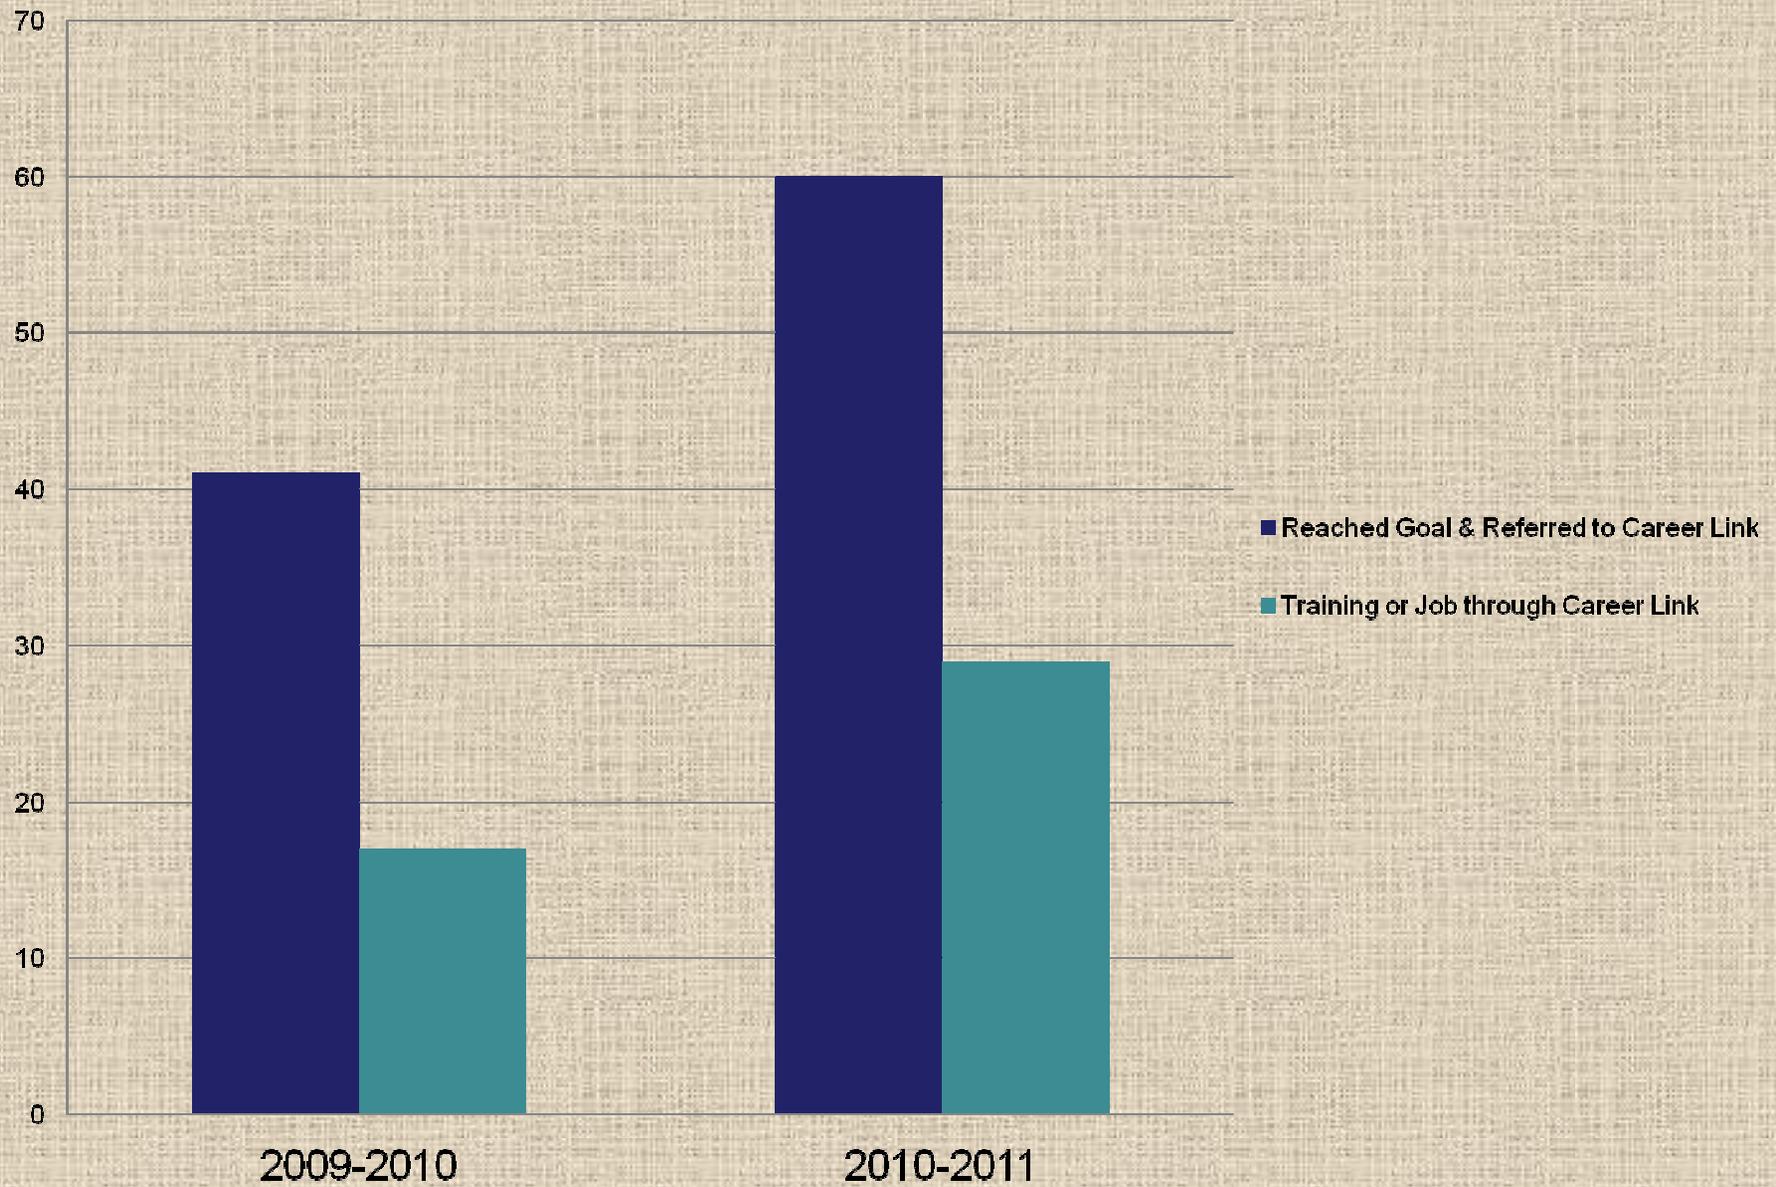

Math EFL Gains

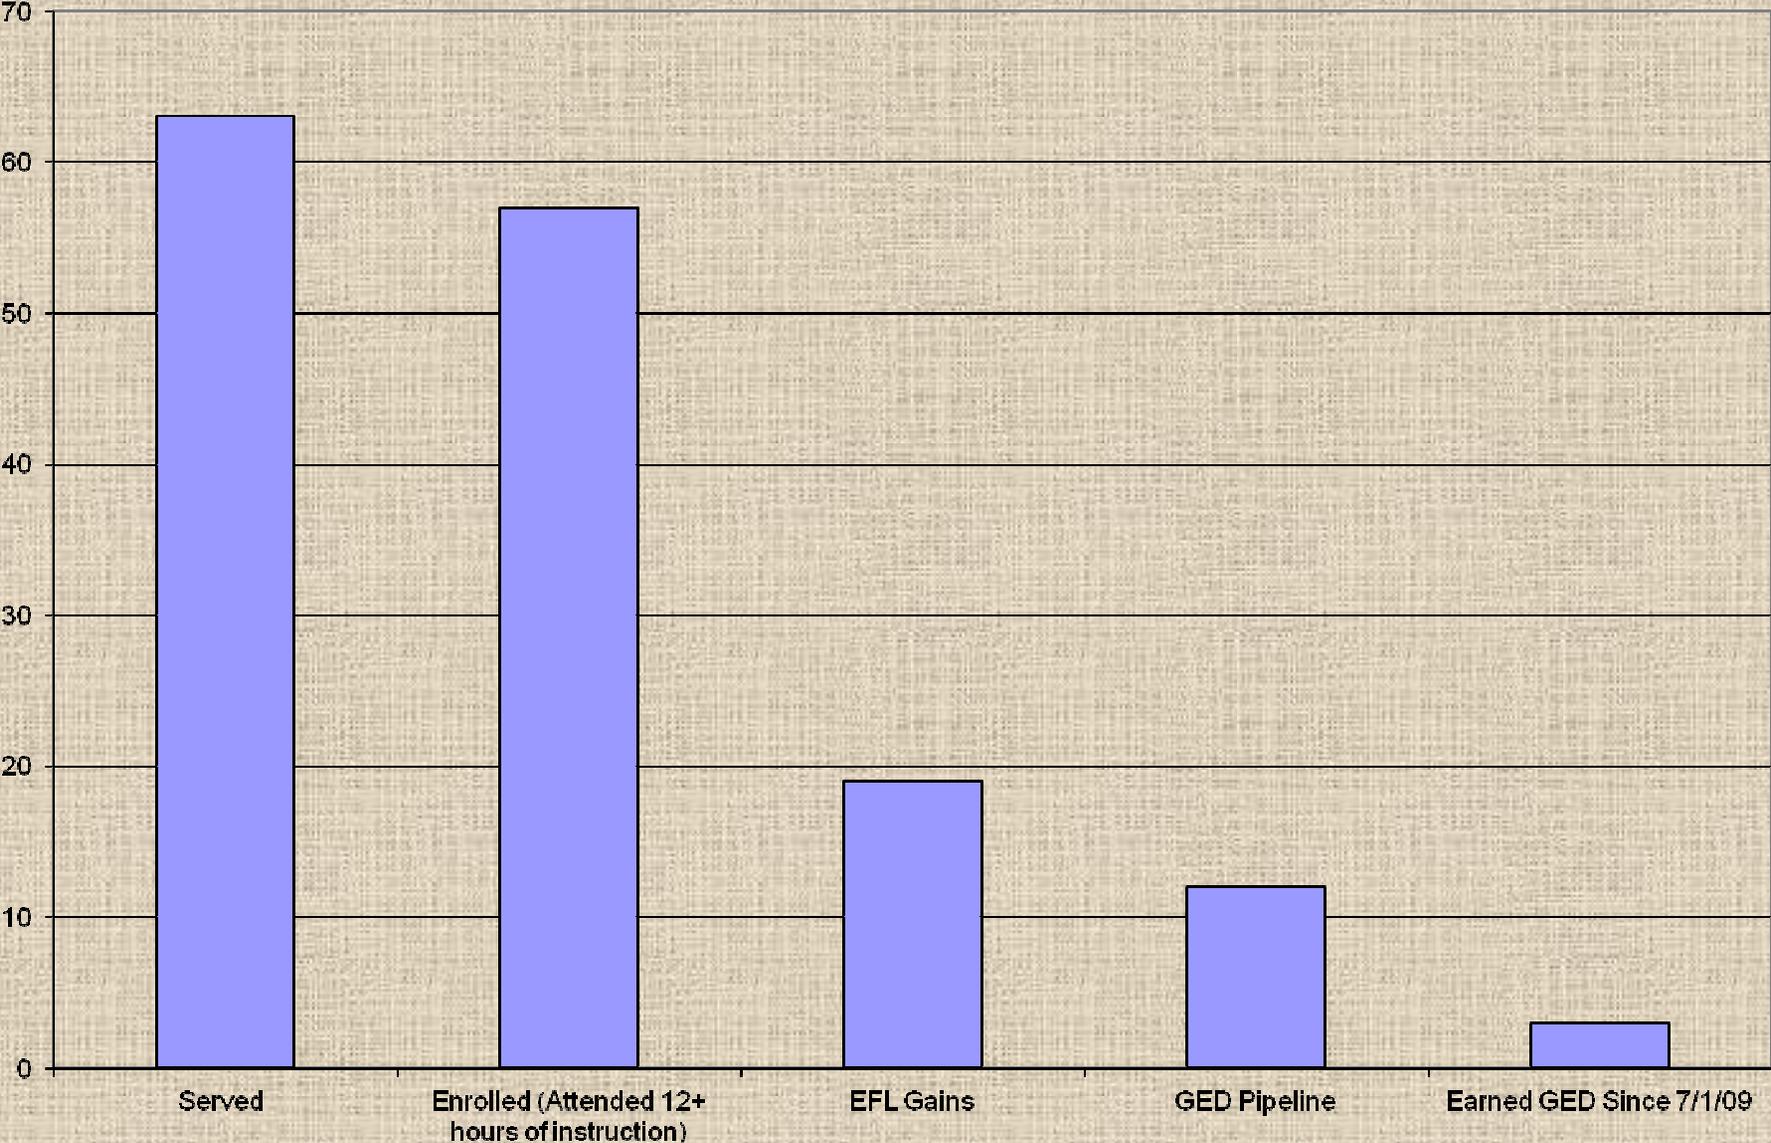

Reading EFL Gains

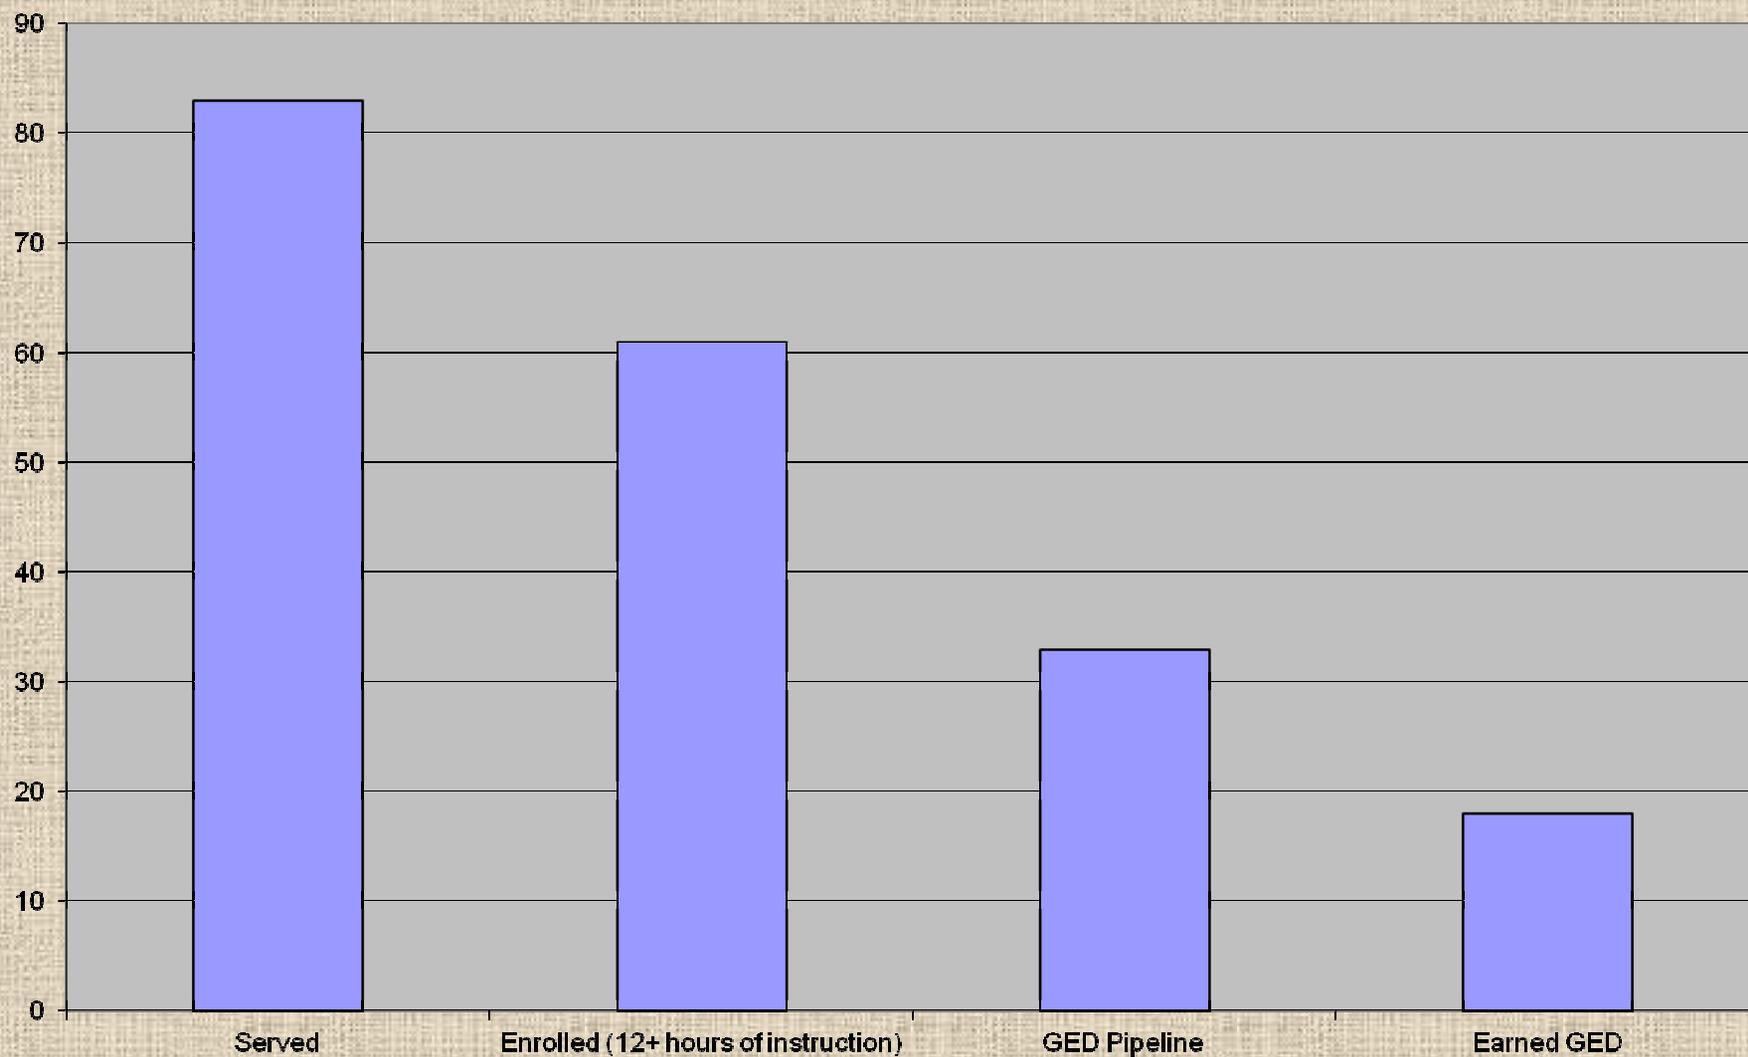

Math Clinic Referrals

CareerLink GED Class 2009-2010

CareerLink GED Class 2010-2011

ABE Class Data

November 2010 – June 2011

- 55 served; 45 enrolled
- 7 people referred to GED Class (all in GED pipeline)
- 5 in GED Pipeline
- 1 entered employment
- 4 people referred to ABE class for upskilling in reading
 - 3 people upskilled reading and referred to math clinic (all have high school diplomas)
 - 3 referred to PA CareerLink
 - 1 person upskilled reading and referred to PA CareerLink

Strategies for Successful Transition

- Partnership
- Employment
- Training
- Business etiquette

Reflections on the Partnership

- Dannyelle Austin
- Rebecca Wagner
- Ed Sikina