

U.S. Department of Labor

Employment and Training Administration

GROWING JOBS BY GOING

GREEN

The National Green Agenda

- Investment in renewable energy, energy efficiency and natural resource conservation
- Create job training programs for clean technologies
- Create 5 million jobs over 10 years

GREEN
JOBS

The Regional Green Agenda

- 💡 Support discretionary and formula investments
- 💡 Research and analysis of state and local green initiatives
- 💡 Facilitate information gathering

The Regional Green Agenda

- 💡 Utilize Labor market information and data tools
- 💡 Provide comments on proposals, draft documents, policy drafts and legislation pertaining to green initiatives
- 💡 Develop the capacity to analyze regional performance of green initiatives

What are “GREEN JOBS”?

- No Standard Definition
 - Green Jobs cross many industries and occupational titles
- “Occupations in areas such as agriculture, construction, manufacturing and technology that considerably restore, preserve and enhance environmental quality”

- R5 Green Team

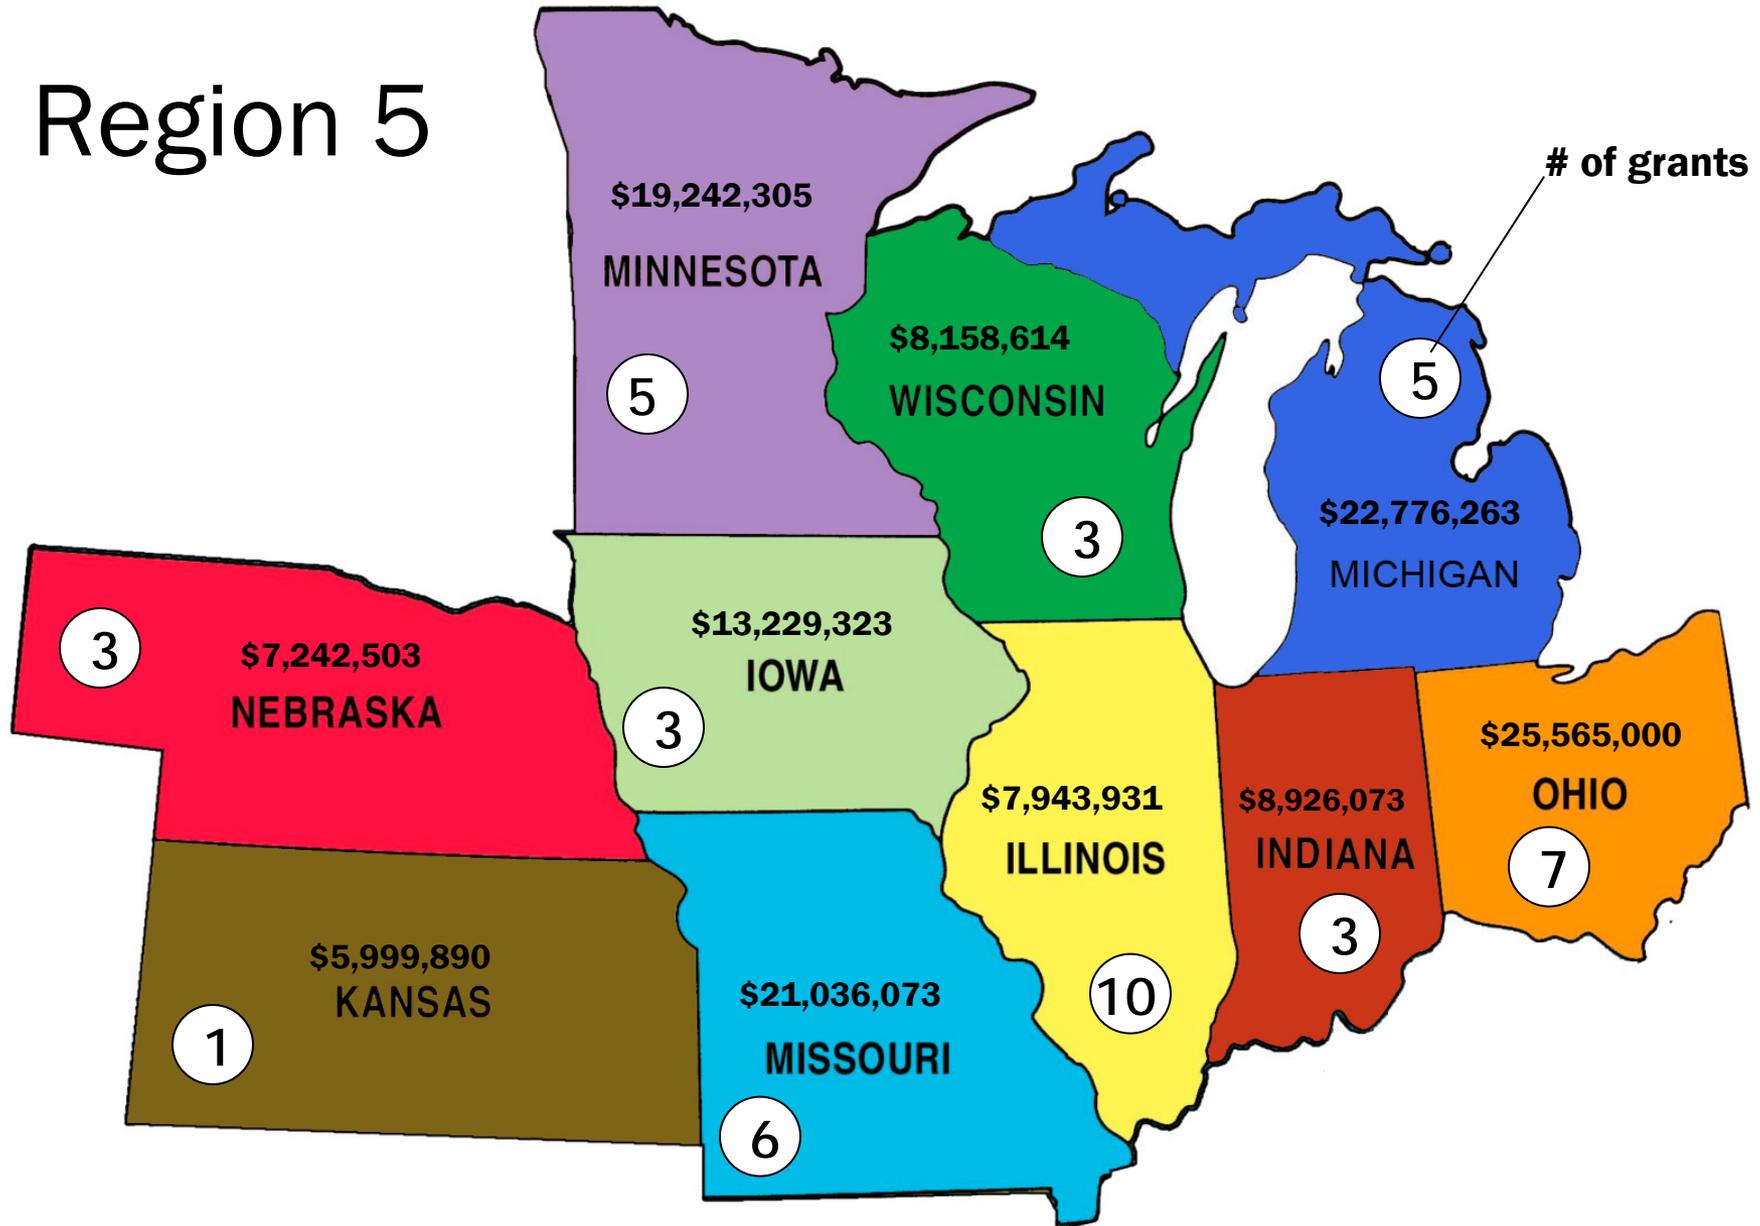

Competitive Grants for Worker Training and Placement in Careers in Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy

1. State Labor Market Information Improvement Grants
2. Energy Training Partnership Grants
3. Pathways Out of Poverty Grants
4. State Energy Sector Partnership and Training Grants
5. Green Capacity Building Grants

Region 5

ARRA State LMI Improvement Grants - Region 5

Consortia grantees

Region 5
consortia
grantees

$3.9 Million

$3.8 million

$4 million

ARRA State LMI Improvement Grants - Region 5 Individual grantees

Region 5
Individual
Grantees

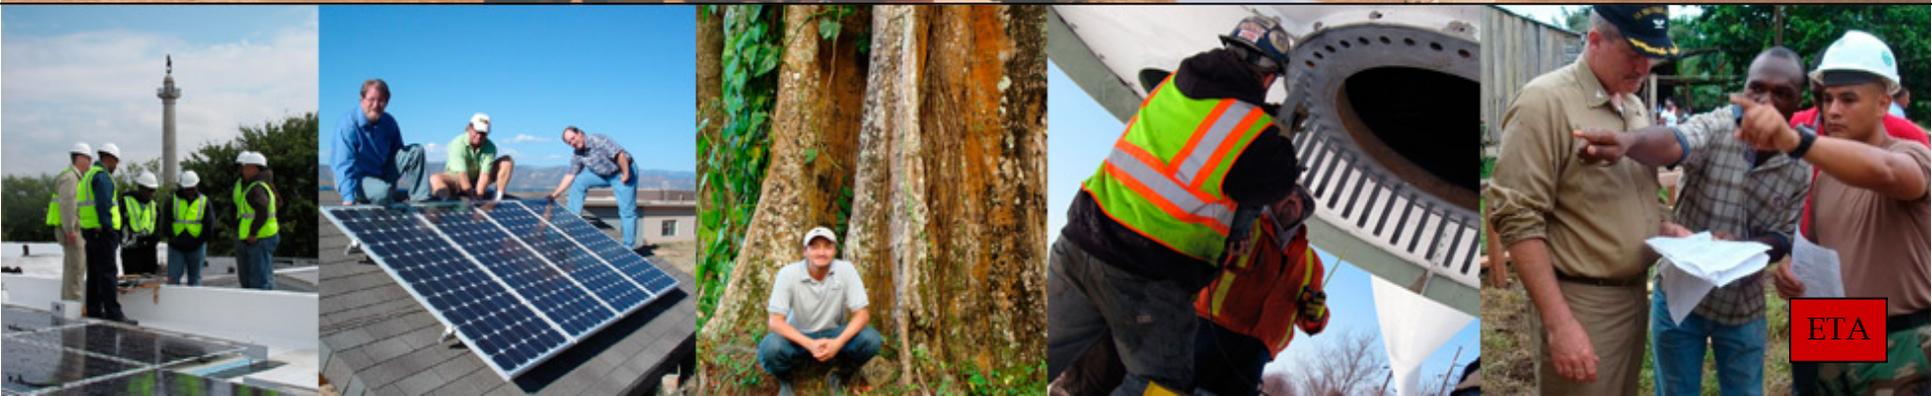

Resources

<http://greenjobs.workforce3one.org/page/home>

Forming Partnerships in a Green World: E3 Economy, Energy Environment

- Department of Labor
- Department of Commerce
- Department of Energy
- Small Business Association
- Environmental Protection Agency

Any Questions?

Danielle Pleas

ETA Region 5 Green Job Initiative Lead

Phone: (312) 596-5539

Fax: (312) 596-5401

Pleas.danielle@dol.gov

Grant Focus/Green Initiative

Forming and Maintaining Partnerships

SPECIFIC TRAINING CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS

Challenges and Successes