

Young Offender Grantee

FLASH FAX!

Side-notes from Saché:
Check out Robert Halpern's short article,
Instrumental Relationships:
A Potential Relational Model for Inner-City Youth Programs
<http://www.positiveyouth.org/files/386/halpern20054.pdf>

A weekly news and information source for USDOL-ETA Youth Employment Program Grantees
August 19, 2005

ONLINE RESOURCES

Juvenile Arrests 2003

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) announces the availability of "Juvenile Arrests 2003" by Howard N. Snyder, Ph.D., Director of Systems Research at the National Center for Juvenile Justice. The bulletin provides a summary and analysis of national and state juvenile arrest data presented in the FBI report "Crime in the United States 2003." Statistical information can be referenced by crime type as well as by additional demographic information. To download a copy of the bulletin go to, <http://www.ojjdp.ncjrs.org/publications/PubAbstract.asp?pubi=12233> .

Juvenile Information Network: Juvenile Justice Teleconference Archive

An extensive archive of juvenile justice-related cybercasts are now available online. The web-based conferences, sponsored by a partnership of leaders in the juvenile justice field, cover a broad range of topics including: graduated sanctions, education and disability, truancy and others. For a complete listing of available programming go to, <http://www.juvenilenet.org/jjtap/archives/index.html> .

Youth Service America Recruiting Lead Agencies for National Youth Service Day

Youth Service America (YSA) is recruiting organizations to serve as Lead Agencies for the 18th Annual National Youth Service Day, April 21-23, 2006. Lead Agencies will help increase the scope, visibility, and sustainability of National Youth Service Day by spearheading large city, regional, or statewide events. Grants in the amount of $2,000 will be awarded to organizations to support media exposure, outreach, and planning. Serving as a Lead Agency is a great opportunity to increase program participation, garner national media attention, develop new partnerships, and generate support from elected officials. For more information visit YSA at, <http://www.ysa.org/nysd/> .

National Youth Development Board - Extended Recruitment Deadline

The National Youth Development Board (NYDB) is currently recruiting young people to serve on its behalf. The purpose of NYDB is to unite the voices and causes of young people; act as consultants to youth, professionals, families, and other adults; and to influence the politics and legislation of mental health policies. Candidates should be knowledgeable about youth involvement as well as have experience as a consumer in the mental health, juvenile justice, special education, substance abuse, or child welfare systems. To learn more visit, http://www.tapartnership.org/youth/Youth_Board.asp#what .